Statement of Purpose

The Autumn Historic Folklife Festival was conceived and is presented to educate and celebrate our cultural heritage by showcasing the historic crafts, food, music, performing arts and culture of the past.

Requirement for Eligibility

1. Our goal is education and celebration of the traditional arts & crafts of the past. We require exhibitors to demonstrate some phase of the art during the festival and have theme-appropriate dress.
2. Folklife Festival is open to theme-appropriate exhibitors, craftsmen, historic arts & crafts artisans, folk artists, living history demonstrators.
3. Artists are expected to exhibit quality and professionalism while adhering to festival theme in product, dress and booth presentation.
4. All work must be original executions of the applicants. No buy/sell items, kit, or machine made items or items made from commercial molds.
5. Artists will be selected to participate by a jurying committee. Not all applicants are accepted.
6. Only items specifically accepted by the jurying committee may be exhibited. Note items on application.
7. Booth may not be shared unless work is collaborative.
