A Brief History of HCT

Hannibal Community Theatre began as a Community Education Drama Workshop in the fall of 1978 and became incorporated as a not-for-profit corporation in May of 1981. In June of 1989 we received our 501c3 status. Since that time, we have been producing plays, musicals, children's productions, workshops, and holiday shows for the entertainment of people in the Hannibal area, as well as providing a much needed outlet for amateur actors, singers, musicians, dancers, and artists in the area. In our thirty year history, Hannibal Community Theatre has performed in many different venues, including the high school, middle school, Missouri Territory Restaurant, the old Federal Courthouse, the Ice House Theatre, the Orpheum Theatre, The Corner Square, First Christian Church, and the Holiday Inn. Finally, in 2001, we obtained the current building through a NAP grant and finally have a home of our own. By purchasing a Season Ticket, you will help us to continue our 31 year tradition of bringing excellent, live theatre to the people of Hannibal and the surrounding area! We appreciate your support!

The Fantasticks Our Summer Musical

“Try to Remember” a time when this romantic charmer wasn’t enchanting audiences all over the world! The longest-running musical ever, this timeless fable of young love is both nostalgic and universal. Full of humor and catchy, memorable songs, such as “Soon It’s Gonna Rain” & “They Were You” it’s the perfect musical for a delightful summer evening of entertainment!

A Golden Fleecing Our Student Production

Join us in Cactus Bob’s Saloon, as our talented young performers entertain you with a good old-fashioned Melodrama. Cheer for the heroine, Sara Sweetflower, and her hero, Stanley Stoutheart, as they battle the villain, Sly Scavenger. This two-act play is full of rootin’-tootin’ fun!

Christmas Belles A Comedy for the Holidays

A church Christmas program spins hilariously out of control in this Southern farce about squabbling sisters, family secrets, a surly Santa, a vengeful sheep, and a reluctant Elvis impersonator. Let us help you get into the Holiday Spirit with this hilarious comedy. It’s guaranteed to bring joy to your world!

See How They Run A Spring Farce

When a nosy neighbor spies on the vicar’s wife (a former actress) and an old colleague re-enacting one of their old scenes, rumors fly and complications, multiply. Throw in an escaped prisoner, a visiting Bishop, a cockney maid, and mistaken identities, and you have the recipe for a rollicking good time!
